Extras:

If you choose the first full weekend in December, you'll be able to catch the "Homes for the Holidays" home tours. You can throw in a live production of "Nun-crackers" if you come to Abilene between December 6-22, 2013. Check the dates that we offer horse-drawn trolley rides or the "Christmas Traditions" trolley tour of lights. There's a lot to do in Abilene in December!

Tea Time to Bedtime (Minimum of six)

If you're looking for a way to create a special memory with your daughters, sisters or friends, Tea Time to Bedtime is the perfect answer to your quest. Stay up late sharing secrets in "The Nest," Abilene's Victorian Inn's third-floor suite that features a sitting room, kitchenette, and three bedrooms. You could occupy the entire house at the Windmill Inn and relax in a whirling spa under a blanket of stars while enjoying a glass of wine. End the evening with a massage before you retire for the evening. Leisurely shop together downtown in the many artisan shops where you'll find the perfect jewelry, candle, artwork, or home décor item. Then return to the Inn for an afternoon tea party or massage, that's sure to be remembered for years to come. Savor the flavor of fried chicken, prime rib, seafood or specialty salads at one of our unique restaurants before turning in for the night.
